

EARTHQUAKE KILLS 300 WORKMEN IN MINES OF SICILY

Victims Trapped in Three Sulphur Caverns, Which Collapse Under Force of Shock.

LONDON, July 6.—A violent earthquake at Catanzaro, Sicily, caused

MISERABLE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Felt Wretched Until He Started To Take "Fruit-a-lives"

504 Champlain St., Montreal.
"For two years I was a miserable sufferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I had frequent Diarrhoea, and when I took food felt wretched and sleepy. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints, and my hands swollen. "A friend advised 'Fruit-a-lives' and from the outset they did me good. After the first box I felt I was getting well, and I can truthfully say that 'Fruit-a-lives' is the only medicine that helped me." LOUIS LARRIE.

ing the deaths of nearly three hundred persons, is reported in an exchange Telegram dispatch from Rome.
It is said the victims were in three sulphur mines, which the earthquake caused to cave in.

There have been several reports recently of seismic disturbances in Italy. The volcano of Stromboli, on an island off the north coast of Sicily, has been in eruption for several days, causing the inhabitants of adjoining districts to flee on rolling white sand from Messina. Earth shocks occurred on Tuesday at Ancona, Rimini, Belluno, Mantova and in other Adriatic districts, but heretofore no loss of life has been reported.
Catanzaro, capital of the Italian province of that name, is a city of more than 30,000 inhabitants.

22,000 STRIKERS MARCH TO PROVE THEIR STRENGTH

Garment Workers Parade in Effort to Force Former Employers to Arbitrate.

A parade of 22,000 striking workers in the garment trades started from Thirtieth Street and Second Avenue today, marching up through Fourth Avenue to Thirty-second Street, across to Seventh Avenue and up to Fortieth Street, to come down again through Madison Avenue for a mass-meeting at Madison Square.
The demonstration was to prove to the employers and the public that the spirit of the strike was still as strong as when it began with a lockout of all union labor in the garment shops three months ago. The deadlock between the workers and the manufacturers must be broken within a few days if the fall and winter business is not to be altogether lost to the trade.

The parade, with its bands, placards and gaudy drills by firemen squads, was the answer of the strikers to a public statement published by their former employers in the newspapers to-day.

Ben Schlichtinger, President of the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union, said to-day the union had abandoned all of its demands in detail for the present, insisting only an arbitration by a fair board of arbitrators and agreeing to accept any working conditions which such a board might impose.

Sentenced to Electric Chair
Miss Jones, forty-five years old, of No. 11 Washington Street, was sentenced to the electric chair today in the Court of General Sessions to die in the electric chair during the week of Aug. 14. Jones was immediately taken to the death house, Sing Sing prison, by Under Sheriff Mitchell. Jones was convicted of the murder of Helen Wagner, of No. 11 Easton Street, April 11 last. She was engaged to be married to Wagner, a well-known actor, at the time she was killed. The woman declared she had fired the fatal bullet, and is now in the Tombs awaiting trial as an accessory.

What the Right Soap Does for Your Skin

Money cannot buy a power toilet soap like Reinal Soap. And, unquestionably, the healing Reinal in it keeps the complexion in a condition of health that promotes clearness, freshness, and that natural beauty which complexion can only imitate. Reinal Soap is equally good for the hair and for baby's skin. Reinal Soap is not artificially colored, its rich brown being entirely due to the Reinal it contains. Twenty-five cents at all druggists and dealers in toilet goods. You will like it.
